

News Advisory

Office of Public Relations
3600 South Constitution Boulevard
West Valley City, Utah 84119-3720
Office: (801) 963-3466
Fax: (801) 955-3604

Email: aaron.crim@wvc-ut.gov

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: December 2, 2010

Contact: Aaron Crim, Director of Public Relations, 801-963-3466 (media use only)
Margene Conde, 801-557-0429

23rd Annual Production of “The Nutcracker” in West Valley City

WHAT: 23rd annual production of “The Nutcracker” by Miss Margene’s Creative Generation Dance Company

WHEN: Wednesday, December 8 and Thursday, December 9 at 7 p.m.
Members of the media are invited to attend the dress rehearsals Monday, December 6, and Tuesday, December 7 at 4 p.m.

WHERE: Hunter High School, 4200 South 5600 West

WHO: Everyone is invited. All tickets are $4 at the door.

WHY: For the past 23 years, thousands of children have had the opportunity to perform in “The Nutcracker,” presented by Miss Margene’s Creative Generation Dance Company. This year, the West Valley City Arts Council and Cultural Arts Board are pleased to present the 23rd annual production. The creative, modern dance production will feature more than 300 dancers. Special effects include a 25-foot growing Christmas tree, an incredible presentation of Mother Buffoon, snow, and fog.

The production is sponsored in part by the West Valley City Arts Council and is directed and choreographed by Margene Conde.

“In our production, all of the dancers in the studio family get the opportunity to dance, not just a select audition cast. Over the years the children have all had the experience to dance The Nutcracker classic,” says “Miss Margene” Conde. “It has been a joy to see the growth in my dancers that were in my first Nutcracker production still dancing at the studio.”

###